

A happy experience.

St. John's Asylum,
Kenton, Ky., Oct. 9, 1894.

In our orphan asylum here there is a 15-year-old child that had been suffering for years from nervousness to such an extent that she oftentimes in the night got up, and with fear depicted on every feature and in a delirious condition, would seek protection among the older people from an imaginary pursuer and could only with great difficulty be again put to bed. Last year Father Koenig while on a visit here happened to observe the child and advised the use of Koenig's Nerve Tonic and kindly furnished us several bottles of it. The first bottle showed a marked improvement and after using the second bottle and up to the present time the child is a happy and contented being. All those suffering from nervousness should seek refuge in Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic.

School Opening.

Monday morning the fall term of the Secondary and Primary school in Sequachee was opened. Besides the teachers and scholars, Mr. Wm. Owen and the News were present. Not a school director or any parents or guardians took enough interest in their children to be present. Even the choir of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was conspicuous for its absence. Why, we do not know but we expected to see them there. 84 children were present and the evidence of the good work of last term was manifest in the splendid order and behavior of those present of which we are proud. Addresses were made by Mr. Owen, the News and Mr. Tate. The visitors offered to furnish prizes for those neither absent nor tardy, a special prize for dictionary class and still another. The school started off well and additions are being made daily and we believe and expect the average attendance will reach 100 and the people of Sequachee owe it to themselves to stand by and support the school loyally and make a sacrifice if necessary to help their own children.
